ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The focus of ATCON-1 International conference is on research and development in Artificial Intelligence and its applications in different domains of engineering and management. The International Conference expects the participation of researchers from different countries. This conference focuses on advancing technology for the benefit of industry 4.0, the environment, and humankind by sharing the ideas of researchers and technology aspirants. Moreover, the conference delivers the most essential technical information to the stakeholders and provides networking opportunities to the delegates. We are very much confident and looking forward to getting high-quality papers at the Alliance Technology Conference (ATCON-1) - INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND APPLICATIONS (ICAIA-2023).
